

Enterprise Edition

License and Support Terms

Use the package confidently, within clear operating boundaries.

These terms are designed to clarify how the files may be used inside your business, what is restricted, and what to do if you have access or delivery issues.

Permitted use

- Use the files inside your own business or purchasing organization.
- Share the files internally with your team.
- Duplicate worksheets for internal operational use.
- Customize the scripts for your own business context.

Restricted use

- Do not resell, redistribute, rebrand, or publicly share the files.
- Do not use the files as a client deliverable without a commercial license.
- Do not upload the files to public template marketplaces or file-sharing sites.

Support and access

For download or file-access issues, contact the seller through the purchase receipt, storefront, marketplace, or portal support path. During the current rollout period, access reconciliation may require matching the checkout email and the login email.

Business-use disclaimer

This product provides business planning and operational guidance.

Results depend on traffic quality, offer strength, pricing, market conditions, implementation follow-through, and team execution.

No revenue result is guaranteed.